THINGS TO KNOW

Voting reminders

- Texas does not offer straight-ticket voting; voters make selections contest by contest.
- Printed sample ballots and handwritten notes may be brought into the voting booth. Take them with you when you leave.
- Electronic devices may not be used within 100 feet of a Vote Center entrance.
- Voters should present an acceptable form of photo ID. A voter who does not possess and cannot reasonably obtain acceptable photo ID may be able to vote by completing a Reasonable Impediment Declaration and presenting supporting identification.

Accuracy note: Candidate names were checked against the Texas Secretary of State's 2026 November General Election ballot certification. Election dates and voter-specific ballot information were checked against official Texas and Harris County election resources. Always verify your individual ballot before voting.
